Radiation Safety Information Computational Center (RSICC) Software Export Control Understanding and Agreement

As a subscriber of the RSICC Software identified below, under the proper execution of the applicable Software license agreement, you acknowledge and agree to abide by all applicable United States Export Control Laws and Regulations and Policies stated herein.

Specifically, the identified software has been classified under the United States Department of Commerce Title 15 Commerce and Foreign Trade, Chapter VII B Bureau of Export Administration, Parts 730 through 774, Commerce Control List as OD999 Specific Software. For reference to the Commerce Regulations and the Additional Requirements below, please refer to: http://www.access.gpo.gov/bis/ear/ear\_data.html.

License Requirements:

The reasons for control are Antiterrorism (AT) and Regional Stability (RS). AT and RS apply to entire entry. A license is required for items controlled by this entry to North Korea and Iraq for antiterrorism reasons. The Commerce Country Chart is not designed to determine AT licensing requirements for this entry. See Part 742.19 for additional information.

- Items:
- a) Software for neutronic calculations/modeling;
  - b) Software for radiation transport calculations/modeling;
  - c) Software for hydrodynamic calculations/modeling.

Additional Requirements:

The representations and certifications in the RSICC Registration Form, Software/Data Order Form are true, accurate and complete.

The subscriber also agrees to review the following lists and agrees not to allow direct or indirect access to the software identified herein for the following individuals, organizations and parties. The links provided below (maintained by parties outside of RSICC's control and subject to change) are provided as a convenience to the subscriber. Your obligation is to check the actual list.
